“ In ten years of volunteer driving for F.I.S.H. (Friends In Service Here) in Woodbury I never had a client I enjoyed more than Ben. He was charming, intelligent and knew more about movies than even me. We chattered nonstop all the way to where ever we went until the car windows fogged up. Ben had a wonderful sense of humor and carried himself with great dignity. I can only imagine how much his family will miss him. I was always delighted to be assigned to Ben for a ride and I hope his family members realize how much he was loved and appreciated in Woodbury. (I wasn't the only driver who looked forward to meeting up with him.) My deepest sympathy to his family.
