“ I can honestly say that I never in a million years thought I'd have to write a condolence for you. My memories of you span throughout my entire life and every one of them I see that smile...I will forever miss our chance meetings and running into you out of the clear blue sky and then catching up for hours, I was always greeted with that damn smile and probably the best hug a person can imagine.... until we meet again. RIP

“So just tell me you love me, and tell me you'll stay
And you'll watch over this house, while I go away
And just promise to be here, when I get back home
So we can start where we left off, all those years ago”
