“ Mommy,
my love , my heart and my best friend. I talk to you all the time, and by sending this message, I know it will also reach you. Every day that passes is a day that is filled with wonderful memories of you, but still my heart aches. I will never get used to you not being here, but I know you are safe in the arms of the Lord. Every day I pray that I can be as wonderful a mother and friend to my children as you have been. Words cannot begin to express the love and comfort you always gave, and you still do. When I need you, you are still there for me. I want you to know that I am a better person because of you, and that my heart is filled with love for you. I absolutely adore you and I miss you so much. I love you mommy, my precious angel.

“ We were just getting to know one another and she will greatly be missed. When we spoke she was always happy and cheerful that we had finally connected. You never are alone, you know, when sorrow comes your way. For there are those whose thoughts and prayers are with you every day.... And though a loss as great as yours is very hard to bear, still, may it help a bit to know that others truly care.
